

LawCare

Taking Positive Action

Externally provided by:

What is LawCare?

LawCare is an Employee Assistance Program which provides free, confidential and voluntary counselling services to QLS members, their immediate family and legal support staff. The aim of LawCare is to assist with the resolution of work related and personal problems which may affect work performance or quality of life.

QLS has engaged an external counselling service, Assure Programs, to provide this short-term personal counselling. Assure Programs counsellors are recognised for their professional qualifications and experience in the provision of Employee Assistance Programs.

Who can access LawCare?

- QLS members and their support staff
- QLS members' immediate family

What problems can LawCare assist with?

Assistance can be provided for a variety of personal, emotional or work related problems including:

- Anxiety, depression and general emotional problems
- Workplace conflict or disharmony
- Coping with organisational change
- Addictions
- Reactions to traumatic or distressing events
- Ongoing stress and burnout
- Grief and bereavement
- Misuse of alcohol and drugs
- Interpersonal relationships
- Introductory financial counselling
- Marriage and family relationship difficulties
- Schooling and study difficulties

For more information:

Freecall: 1800 177 743

Email:

info@assureprograms.com.au

Website:

www.assureprograms.com.au

QLS has engaged Assure Programs to provide this service.