STREAM 1A

A succession lawyer's toolkit

In addition to providing guidance on common conundrums experienced by succession lawyers, this session solves everyday problems involving trusts and wills. Topics for discussion have been selected to be of assistance to solicitors new to this practice area or those seeking a refresher and include:

- steps to take when:
 - drafting wills in emergency situations
 - preparing and executing bedside wills
- outlining your obligations for wills and power of attorney documents retained in your firm's safe custody
- divulging information versus client confidentiality – the limits on providing information to third parties
- summarising procedures and evidence gathering for:
 - unsigned wills
 - making enquiries about a will's existence and the identification of beneficiaries
 - locating lost wills
- tackling trusts
 - understanding and establishing testamentary trusts
 - dealing with defective trust deeds
 - trusts troubleshooting – what to do when things go wrong, such as errors made when making payments from the trust

Speakers: Rebecca Burness, Senior Associate, de Groot's Wills & Estate Lawyers and Accredited Specialist – Succession Law (Qld) and Betty Leung, Senior Estate Planning Lawyer, ANZ Trustees Limited and Accredited Specialist – Succession Law (Qld)

Chair: Zinta Harris, Principal, Harris Law and dual Accredited Specialist – Business Law (Qld) and Succession Law (Qld)

STREAM 1B

Drafting affidavits in family provision applications – essential considerations

- essential contents of affidavits for applicants, executors, litigation guardians and charities

Panel discussion: Answering your costs concerns

- providing a refresher on the fundamentals of costs agreements in non-litigious work such as enduring power of attorney and will drafting together with estate administration
- outlining the consequences of not having an agreement
- understanding the function of the court scales and uplift of scale items
- exploring the issues of estimates
- identifying the consequences of having no estimate or inaccurate estimates for litigious and non-litigious work
- offering a guide on costs for stages of work in a family provision application
- rights of beneficiaries to object to administration costs

Panelists: Bob Brittan, Manager – Complaints, Office of the Legal Services Commissioner and Greg Ryan, Principal, Greg Ryan Cost Consultant Pty Ltd
 Speaker, chair and commentary: Gary Lanham, Special Counsel, Minter Ellison and Accredited Specialist – Succession Law (Qld)

11:00am – 11:20am Morning Tea

11:20am – 12:55pm

STREAM 3A

11:20am – 11:50am

Topical ethical issues for succession lawyers

Presented in two parts, this session considers disputed wills and executors' commissions.

1. Disputed wills

In addition to providing practical pointers for solicitors who prepare a will which is later disputed, this session discusses:

- some benefits of providing a statement of interest to the parties when a will is disputed
- seeking guidance from English decisions – Larke v Nugus (2000) WTLR 1033; Jerome & Sheppard v Sellars [2007] EWHC 1366
- strategies and tools which can be implemented to manage cases involving a disputed will

2. Solicitor executors seeking commissions

Considering the fiduciary duty owed by a solicitor acting as an executor seeking payment of an executor's commission, this section will look at:

- drawing a distinction between legal fees and commission
- the decisions of Walker v. Clem D'Alessandro (as executor of the estate of Ivy Rosalind Mary Pump deceased) [2010] VSC 15 and In the Matter of Suzanna Gray [2010] VSC 173.

Speaker: Stafford Shepherd, Ethics Guidance Solicitor, Queensland Law Society

STREAM 3B

Assisting clients in navigating the QCAT jurisdiction – short presentations and interactive panel discussion

What happens after the adult dies?

- issues for administrators and attorneys after the death of a principal – tips and traps
- who can give an administrator or an attorney a legal discharge – if required and from what?
- what if probate is not required to administer the late principal's estate?
- records and audits – s 122 Powers of Attorney Act 1998
- irregularities with the late principal's finances – duties of the legal personal representative and compensation orders (if appropriate) – sections 106 and 107 Powers of Attorney Act 1998

Speaker: Glenn Dickson, Barrister, Queensland Bar

Difficult and unusual decisions for administrators and attorneys – protecting the adult and the decision maker

- sex, drugs and Irish music for attorneys and administrators
- dealing with relations – the good, the bad and the mad
- conflict transactions – what conflict?
- gifts – including early distribution of the adult's estate
- wills, valuations and other confidential documents
- the prudent person rule versus the principle of substituted judgment (managing 'dubious' assets)

Speaker: Rod Murphy, Senior Legal Counsel, Perpetual

Succession Law Conference 2010

11:20am – 12:55pm (continued)

STREAM 3A continued

11:50am – 12:55pm

Funeral arrangements – who has the right to decide?

This session identifies what rights attach to various stakeholders in the process of making funeral arrangements and the contrasting law associated with cremation and ashes.

- Funeral arrangements
 - conflicts associated with final disposal
 - the rights of various stakeholders
 - control of the plot and headstone
 - Smith v Tamworth City Council (1997) 41 NSWLR 680 - Justice Young's 15 key points
- Cremations
 - how the Cremations Act 2003 alters the common law principles related to final disposal
 - differences between New South Wales and Queensland
 - ownership of the ashes

Speaker: Christine Smyth, Special Counsel, Robbins Watson Solicitors and Accredited Specialist – Succession Law (Qld)

Chair: Judy Hayward, Principal, Hayward & Co Lawyers and Accredited Specialist – Succession Law (Qld)

Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal v the Guardianship and Administration Tribunal – what has changed?

Administrator and enduring power of attorney issues

- legal representation at QCAT
- appeals
- witnessing an enduring power of attorney (EPA)
- commencement of EPA
- charging and conflict clauses
- maintaining records of financial transactions

Speaker: Les Clarkson, Part-time member, Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal

Chair: Mark Crofton, Official solicitor, Public Trustee of Queensland

1:00pm – 2:00pm

Damien Mullins SC Memorial session

Death and division and the family farm

- family provision applications in rural estates
- promises, representations and expectations of inheritance – a different approach or more of the same for farming families?
- the testator's dilemma: the family partnership and familial parting – to divide the farm or go back on your word?
- the surviving spouse:
 - the widow of a long marriage
 - the need to balance the sense of entitlement and moral claims of sons and daughters assumed from decades of personal exertion: is maintaining the integrity of the farm a paramount consideration in the exercise of judicial discretion?
- at mediation – appropriate but different preparation to secure the best outcome
- water rights – the new trump card?
- the patriarch versus the matriarch: Who has the paramount obligation and claim?

Speaker: Doug Murphy SC, Barrister, Queensland Bar

Chair: Peter Wilson, Consultant, MPN Lawyers and Accredited Specialist – Succession Law (Qld)
