Privacy

Queensland Law Society is collecting the personal information in this form under 114(3) of the LPA. We will use the information in the course of performing our regulatory and member services functions. The information may be provided to various organisations, such as the Legal Services Commission, corresponding interstate authorities and ASIC, in accordance with the LPA. It may also be provided to the Supreme Court for the purpose of proceedings under s132 (Banning of ILPs) or s133 (Disqualification from managing ILP) of the LPA, and may thereby be in the public domain. Further, it may be given to other parties, if required by law.

In accordance with the Electronic Transactions (Queensland) Act 2001, the Society may provide notices, such as practising certificate renewals, to you by electronic communication. By completing this form, your consent to this form of contact is taken to be given.

The Society may also use third parties to administer and deliver services and communications to practitioners by email or mail. Some third party suppliers or their products and services are located overseas. Business details and personal information you choose to provide on this form may be transferred to an overseas recipient and stored overseas to administer such services and communications to you. By completing this form, you agree to this transfer and Australian Privacy Principle 8.1 will not apply to this disclosure.

If you do not wish your details to be used for any one or more of the above purposes, you should advise the Records section of the Society, GPO Box 1785, Brisbane Qld 4001 in writing.

Further details about the Society's Privacy Statement, Plan and Code of Practice and the collection of personal information may be found on the Society's website, qls.com.au.
