Queensland Law Society ('the Society') is authorised to collect your personal information under the Queensland Law Society Indemnity Rule 2005 and the Legal Profession Act 2007, and may use the personal information you have provided in this form for a number of purposes including:

- carrying out the Society's statutory obligations and duties
- updating and maintaining details relating to your practise of law.

The personal information you provide on the form may be given to third parties such as the Legal Services Commission or as required by law.

In accordance with the Electronic Transactions (Queensland) Act 2001, the Society may provide notices to you by electronic communication. By completing this form, your consent to this form of contact is taken to be given.

The Society may also use third parties to administer and deliver services and communications to practitioners by email or mail. Some third party suppliers or their products and services are located overseas. Business details and personal information you choose to provide on this form may be transferred to an overseas recipient and stored overseas to administer such communications to you. By completing this form, you agree to this transfer and Australian Privacy Principle 8.1 will not apply to this disclosure.

If you do not wish your details to be used for any one or more of the above purposes, you should advise the Records section of the Society, GPO Box 1785, Brisbane Qld 4001 in writing.

Further details about the Society's Privacy Statement, Plan and Code of Practice and the collection of personal information may be found on the Society's website, qls.com.au.
