Dear Director

Expiry and remake of the Service and Execution of Process Act 1993 (Cwlth)

We refer to your email correspondence on 24 January 2018 advising that the Commonwealth Attorney-General's Department has advised that the Service and Execution of Process Regulations 1993 (the Regulations) are due to sunset on 1 October 2018 and have asked for comments from the Department of Justice and Attorney-General (DJAG) on whether the Regulations can be remade as they are currently drafted or as to any necessary amendments.

We thank you for seeking the Queensland Law Society's views in respect of this remake.

The Queensland Law Society does not have any concerns to raise in respect of the current Regulations. We note that these Regulations are well-known amongst our members and as such, any substantial changes may create issues, where no substantive issues currently exist.

If you have any queries regarding the contents of this letter, please do not hesitate to contact our Senior Policy Solicitor, Kate Brodnik on [REDACTED] or via [REDACTED].

Yours faithfully
