

Disclosure Log

The Legal Practitioners Admissions Board's Disclosure Log provides details of information that has been released in response to non-personal right to information requests since the Right to Information Act 2009 (Qld) commenced on 1 July 2009. It contains details of the date of any decision to release information, the nature of the request made and the documents released, information as to how you can access the information, and, where possible a link to the relevant documents.

In accordance with the Information Privacy Principles and the Information Privacy Act 2009 (Qld) this disclosure log does not include requests for personal information.

To date, the Board has not released any information requested under non-personal right to information applications.

Reference	Date of Decision	Number of Pages	Information requested (Nature of request and documents)	How to access
001/2024	15 February 2024	33	Documents relating to admission application	Electronic
001/2025	21 January 2026	13	Documents relating to admission application	Electronic